

Leadership in the Modern Age!

Full/Half Day workshop

The 'Leadership in the Modern Age' workshop is an engaging and thought provoking experience for leaders and employees alike. Due to the technology and information boom, effective leadership is now seen through a different lens. Ryan unpacks what behaviours are required for optimal leadership in today's world. Whether participants are currently in a leadership role, looking to move into a leadership position or purely looking to develop and grow, this seminar will hit the mark both on a professional and personal level.

Themes covered in the workshop are:

- How to Influence Different Generations In The Workplace
 - Leadership in the modern age
 - The role of Millennials
- Why Having A Progressive Mindset is Crucial in The Age of Comfort...
 - Are you a VHS or an App?
 - Why progress is the root of all performance
- Building Greater Resilience Into Your Personal Toolkit
 - What is resilience? It's now more than just bouncing back.
 - Dealing with CRAP (Criticism – Rejection – Apathy – Pressure)
- Why Personal Brand Is Your Most Powerful Marketing Tool
 - What is your current personal brand?
 - What is your ideal personal brand?
 - Where are the gaps? What is your strategy to close the gaps?
- Why Goal Setting Has Changed, And How To Approach It...
 - The difference between independent & inter-dependent goals
 - Developing your Personal why
 - Creating a 6 month personal plan via the PRIDE model
